

Declaration of Interest

1) All authors have a responsibility to disclose any financial interests and personal relationships that could inappropriately influence (bias) their work or might appear to affect their ability to present data objectively. All competing interests should be disclosed on this "Declaration of Interests" form as well as in the last section of the manuscript before the "References" section, under the heading "Declaration of Interests." This section should include financial or other competing interests as well as affiliations that are not included in the author list.

These interests include relevant financial (for example patent ownership, stock ownership, consultancies, speaker's fees, employment, honoraria, paid expert testimony, grants or other funding), personal, political, intellectual, patent applications/registrations, or religious interests.

□ I have no relevant interest(s) to disclose.
$\Box$ I have potentially relevant interest(s) as outlined below (if more space is required, please document the information in an attachment):
Please note: The interest(s) specified here or a statement that you have no interest(s) to declare must appear in the Acknowledgments section of your article. Please ensure that this is done.
